Letter No. 1962/221 dated 5th December 1900, from the Inspector General of Police in Mysore, soliciting orders of Govt as to the nature of the appointment held by Mr. Beveridge as Teacher in Surveying and Drawing in the Police Training School, Bangalore.

Order thereon 9192-99/J 1026.

7/8-1-1901. It is observed that Mr. Beveridge's appointment was, from the commencement a temporary one, his service being utilized only for a season and he being at liberty to take up any other appointment out of Police School hours and when the School was closed; the emoluments were fixed with due regard to the temporary nature of his work and his occasional employment in each year, ~~and that~~ the mere inclusion of his name in the annual schedules of the Comptroller and the extension of his service under the orders of Government cannot be taken advantage of, to give him any benefit which the holder of a permanent appointment alone could claim.

2. Mr. Baveridge may now be clearly informed of the temporary nature of his appointment and that he will be employed as before only for the period during which he is required to give the training to which he is the Police

School in Surveying and Drawing -

3. If Mr Beveridge is however unwilling to continue on the same terms as before, the Inspector General with ~~is~~ requested to make other suitable arrangements and to inform ~~him~~ Mr Beveridge that his services will not be required when the school re-opens on the 15th March 1901.

Sir

I beg to bring to your notice that I received my pay today for March last, and was surprised to find that I had only been paid for the first 15 days, Viz Rs 19-5-8 instead of Rs 40 for the whole month.

Although Government sanctioned 3½ months half pay for the recess, it was under the impression that the School would reopen on the 15th March, but as circumstances prevented it being opened till the 1st April, I am sure I will not be deprived the remaining 16 days half pay, if the matter
